

COMMUNITY SUPPORT PROGRAM - PRICING

INITIAL SCREENING
Expression of Interest	$275
STAGE 1 – APPROVED PROPOSING ORGANISATION FEES
During Stage 1, ARA Migration Agents will carry out an initial interview with Australian Supporter to finalise and confirm eligibility criteria, and prepare and Class XB 202 visa applications and all supporting documents. ARA Migration Agents will also work with the ARA Settlement Team to prepare a plan for settlement of all applicants upon their arrival in Australia.	$4000
The Bond allows for the provision of settlement services upon arrival in Australia (This fee is refundable if the application does not proceed past Stage 1)	$3000
STAGE 1 – DEPARTMENT OF HOME AFFAIRS FEES
A Visa Application Charge is payable to the Department at the time of the Class XB 202 visa application	$2955
STAGE 2 – APPROVED PROPOSING ORGANISATION FEES
This covers support for the Australian Supporter before the applicants arrive in Australia. ARA will liaise with the Department and the ARA settlement team on all matter related to the imminent arrival of the applicants and will support the Australian supporters in organizing travel and accommodation for entrants.	$750
STAGE 2 – DEPARTMENT OF HOME AFFAIRS FEES
A second Visa Application Charge is payable to the Department prior to the grant of the Class XB 202 visa	$16,444 main applicant $2,680 per applicant
STAGE 3 – APPROVED PROPOSING ORGANISATION FEES
Each applicant is required to receive Humanitarian Support Program assistance upon arrival in Australia. This includes preparation and implementation of a case management plan, orientation services for all applicants, and a final interview to ensure that the applicants have achieved the settlement outcomes set out in their case management plan.	$620 per applicant
This stage covers of delivery of settlement support services to applicants for a twelve month period. ARA will undertake ongoing management and oversight of settlement outcome of entrant. ARA Case Managers will be tasked with providing ongoing support to all successful applicants.	$3,000